

My dear friend
Rev. S. May, Am.

Dublin Dec. 16. 1859

I enclose a letter to W. L. G. respecting the poor American refugees, when broken. The enclosure contains a note for Rev. W. Thompson of N. Y. which when dictated to my wife I should be sent on without fail. I know your strength does not lie in taking care of documents.

I enclose a draft on London in your favor for £82.12.8 which includes the money you kindly lend my son. If this draft should not include the exact amount due you when you please take the difference out of my donation of £10. & put me down for so much less. Last year some of the Irish donors were entered in the Standard & Liberator for 20 times too much - & some for only half the amount of their donations. This has better be looked to next time, as it puts some of our ~~best~~ who are in a little prominent in the cause into rather a false position.

Will you send forward the name of Mrs. Edmundson of Dublin for a second copy of the Standard. Both papers had better go in the one cover. The Liberator (of which I get two) might as well come in the same way.

Poor Ellen Brown! a true hero & a noble man. American lawyer & persecutor his ~~master~~ noblest son. When Judge of A.D.

Yours affectionately

Richd D Webb

I find that I cannot get the particulars of Mrs Edmunds's collection
in time for this post.
But I hope to send it next mail. Her contribution was £5 - the rest in smaller sums.
